26th ESVCN annual Congress from 6th – 8th September 2022

Dear Madam or Sir,

We are pleased to announce the 26th annual congress of the European Society of Veterinary and Comparative Nutrition (ESVCN), which will take place from 6th to 8th September 2022 in Basel (Switzerland), organized by the Institute for Animal Nutrition and Dietetics, Vetsuisse Faculty of the University of Zurich. The ESVCN is a non-profit, scientific society with the aim to foster better knowledge and understanding in animal nutrition, stimulating and push research in this area, contributing to the exchange of the latest findings in animal nutrition as well as the support the education of specialists in animal nutrition.

The annual conference of the ESVCN is a great opportunity to further advance our activities. Between 250 and 300 specialists from research and industry from Europe and the USA are attending the conference every year. The conference program includes four overview lectures by renowned experts, around 50 short lectures and guided poster presentations. The program will be published on the conference website in due course (<https://esvcn.org/events/esvcn-congress-2022>). The abstracts of all conference contributions will be summarized in a congress volume.

For the ESVCN conference 2022 we were able to win over the following renowned speakers of plenary lectures:

- Prof Dr Wilhelm Windisch, TU Munich
- Prof Dr Jürgen Zentek, FU Berlin
- Ellen Dierenfeld, PhD, Honorary Professor at Nottingham Trent University, Consultancy LLC, Saint Louis
- Prof Dr-Ing Alexander Mathys, ETH Zurich

Our aim is that the participants gain also a lasting positive impression of the event country Switzerland. For this purpose, we offer an appealing social framework program in the context of the conference.

In order to be able to carry out the annual congress successfully, we depend on the support of other local and international partners from the industry, in addition to the valued Society Sponsors of the ESVCN. Would you like to support the exchange and education of specialists in animal nutrition and to take advantage of an advertising opportunity at the congress? - We are looking for partners like you!
